

Is in support of YOU and

G&T Direct are Safari Team Specialists, our aim is to provide strategic support to you and the Safari Team you are part of where you need it most. Cost Effective and Efficient Exposure...

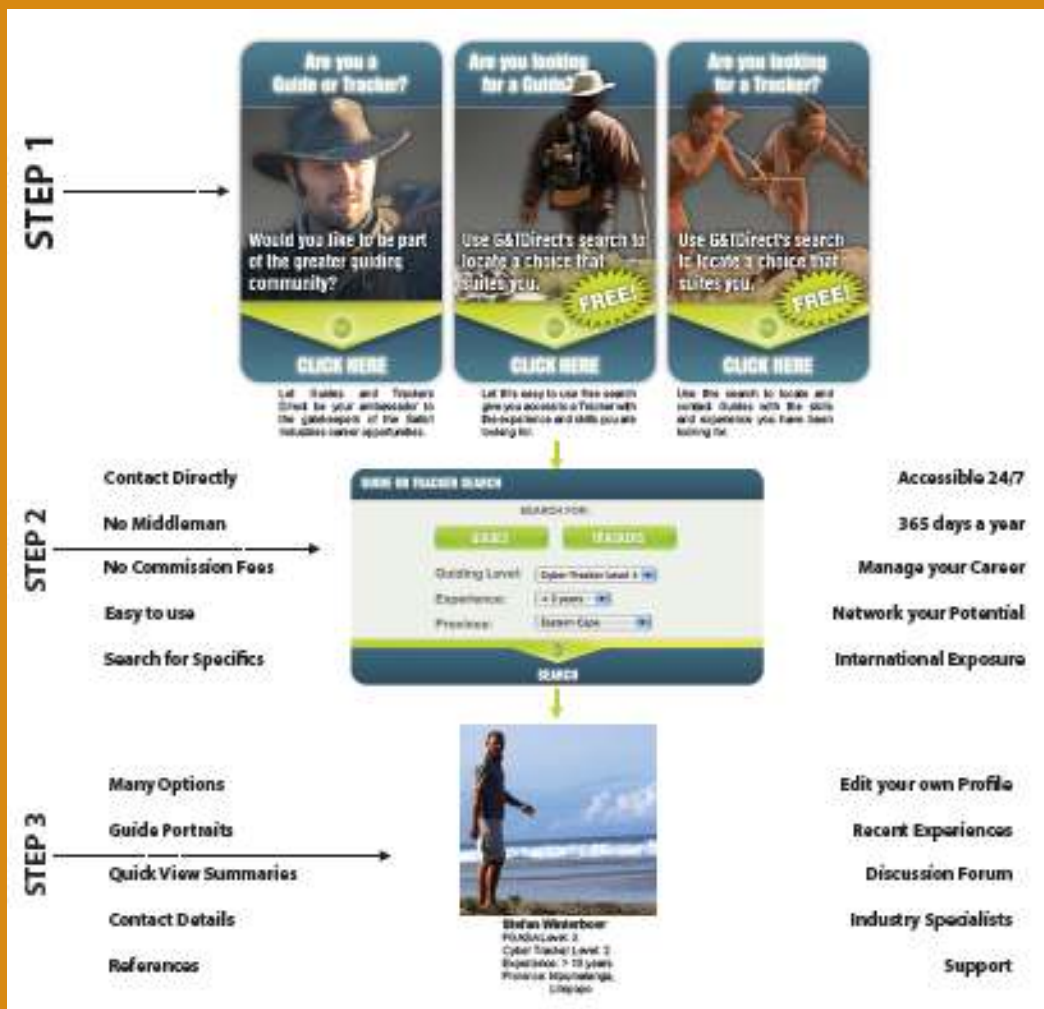

G&T Direct not only creates the environment for you to manage your own career advancement but as an added value option we bring the whole guiding community to you. Take part in our forum and discuss, comment on and get advice from other active guides around Southern Africa, taking your awareness to new levels and empowering you better than ever

THE FACT IS:

- Whether you are a new or old guide to the industry, you need to ensure you are exposed to any potential employer when the opportunity arises within their safari teams.
- While you are enjoying your chosen lifestyle and working the long hours outdoors and away from any form of contact with the industry, career opportunities are passing you by.
- Limited time available to network yourself & create exposure for your employability means that until you start looking to advance in your career, Lodges and Safari Operations don't know who you are, where to find you and what you can do. Who's to say that they will have a place open in their teams for you then?
- Getting authentic and valuable advice from industry specialists is difficult because, who do you call?

We are not a recruitment agent and the information displayed is free to access and use by any potential employer with no middleman. This is our success; your new employers pay no agency commission to us, so they are free to make their own choices AND You don't have to pay any commissions back if a bad decision was made, get networking with your new employers now!

Let EcoTraining and G&T Direct bring those opportunities to you!
